Coaches,

I hope you enjoyed your season and had much success. I know it is early to think about next year, but planning is a key when it comes to success in football. We would like to invite you and your team to an event unlike any other. Bring your team to an event where linemen are cheered as if they had just thrown the game winning touchdown; watch skill players develop that key chemistry for early season connections; allow DB's the chance to learn to cover players other than their teammates. We want to invite you to the 2015 Big Man Battle & Passing Tournament. This is an exciting opportunity for your team, as well as fun for everyone. Every passing game will have a lineman competition during halftime. They will compete against the same team your passing team is playing. This allows the crowd to enjoy both events, along with building team unity. Seeing the skill players cheer on their linemen is a GOOD thing! This also allows position coaches to see and help each other during both events.
